Thank you fish fry volunteers

We would like to extend a very big thank you to all fish fry workers. Your commitment and dedication resulted in a very profitable year for St. Bernadette. We are looking forward to next season, which will include a few menu changes that hopefully will result in continued success. Thanks again, and God bless you!

Update on Stephan

We often have people ask about Stephan's wellbeing and whereabouts. He is still in the area and doing well, with our help. If you are interested in making a donation to help with Stephan's living expenses, you are welcome to give it to Fr. Greg or send it to the parish office and we will give it to him as needed. It is better to not give it directly to Stephan. Thank you so much to all who ask about Stephan, and please keep him in your prayers.

Because of vacation days, the parish office might not always be open at the regular times during the summer months. It would be best to call before your visit to assure that someone is available.

Please note:

- ◆ The parish office will be open 8:00AM-2:00PM on July 3, 5-6, and 10-13.
- ◆ The parish office will be closed all Fridays during the month of July, unless arrangements are made with the pastoral staff for appointments/meetings.
- ◆ There will be no 8:00AM Mass on all Fridays in July.

Don't miss the Festival fun!

Our Parish Festival will take place June 23, 24, and 25. It is not too late to get involved. Please contact the parish office if you would like to help. There is something for everyone to do!

Items can still be dropped off for the Festival Rummage Sale, too!

Live the Liturgy

Today is all about transformation. The bread and wine is transformed into the body and blood of Christ and we, by partaking in the Eucharist, are also transformed into the body and blood of Christ. Saint Augustine issued a wise instruction regarding the Eucharist: "Become what you eat." This is the real challenge of every Eucharistic celebration. Will we allow God to transform us into His Son so that the hope, love, healing, comfort, and mercy He embodies can be brought to our world through us? As Jesus feeds us, how can we feed others?

Stewardship & Evangelization – the Chicken or the Egg?

Archbishop
Jerome E. ListECKI

At one time or another, you have probably heard the saying, “which comes first – the chicken or the egg?” You may have even used this adage when you were discussing something and weren’t sure where to begin or the process of how something got started.

In church circles, there are some people who have the “chicken and egg” discussion regarding stewardship and evangelization. One school of thought tells us that stewardship leads to evangelization. Another way of thinking emphasizes that evangelization must come before stewardship.

As I have said many times, my top priorities are Catholic Identity (who we are), Evangelization (what we do) and Stewardship (how we do it). So, while no one can definitively answer the question of which comes first – the chicken or the egg – I can tell you for sure that you need both!

Perhaps we might be wise to consider stewardship and evangelism as two branches of our faith “tree.” Both flow from embracing our faith fully – the gifts and the responsibilities – and then acting accordingly. Both call us to share all we have: our time, our talents, our resources and our faith, as we do our part to live as God intended, and invite others to do the same. Stewardship and Evangelization – one does not exist without the other.

Those involved with stewardship understand that the most important goal of stewardship formation is deepening our relationship with Jesus so that we can live more faithfully as his disciples in the world. In other words, the ultimate goal of stewardship formation is evangelization. When our faith lives are alive and on fire, we cannot help but share our love of Jesus with others.

We also understand that evangelization is central to the mission of all we do as Church. Through evangelization, we come to know, and to share, the Good News of Jesus Christ. Evangelization, simply stated, is encountering Jesus, embracing his call to discipleship, and sharing that call with others.

Disciples who practice stewardship as a way of life recognize God as the source of all they have, are, and will be. Good stewards recognize the most precious gift given by our gracious and generous God is the gift of faith and they recognize that this gift must be shared with others in our faith community and the larger world.

So, it’s not as important which came first as it is that we are faithful disciples whose lives are rooted in Catholic Identity, Evangelization and Stewardship.

What does this mean for me?

Stewardship and evangelization call us to share all we have – “our time, our talents, our resources and our faith.” When have I witnessed someone truly doing that?

Archbishop ListECKI states that the goal of stewardship is to deepen one’s relationship with Jesus in an effort to “live more faithfully as his disciples.” What have I been doing or could I do to deepen my relationship with Jesus?
